from the creators of two dads in london richard and lewis edwards middleton comes their debut picture ebook my family and other families is a heartwarming tale about friends family and ferris wheels and shows a world where different families are equal liam has just one thing on his mind making it to the ferris wheel to use his ticket his friends are also there playing games munching popcorn and going on rides with their families but when liam s ticket goes missing it s a race against time to find it if everyone helps maybe they can find it with beautifully vibrant illustrations from andy passchier this story shows children that it is wonderfully normal for every family to be different much academic writing on families reflects the ideal of non involvement and distanced subject matter toward more family centered family sciences suggests that the family sciences in their effort to be scientific have perpetuated this distance between researcher and subject to the detriment of both the authors argue that family and kinship ties are transcendent ties boundary crossing in numerous ways they place an emphasis on family love in contrast and in addition to romantic love and criticize current approaches for neglecting the importance of transcendent concepts such as love commitment respect and sacrifice in the development and well being of family structures drawing from insights both inside and outside of academia the authors seek to reincorporate transcendent concepts into the study of the family as a unit of society they argue for a more collaborative family centered family science and offer recommendations for how family researchers might work to change the scientific monologue about families to a systemic dialogue with families
